PRESS RELEASE

DATE: December 8, 2011

For Immediate Release

CCPL Selected as Community Treasure

Taneytown, MD—Carroll County Public Library's Taneytown Branch has been named by Kennie's Marketplace a Community Treasure, and on Monday, December 5 was presented with a check for $1015.

The Community Treasures program allows customers to select local nonprofits or charities to benefit from their shopping at Kennie's Marketplace. Kennie's rebates up to 1% of the purchases made in the charities' names with a maximum donation of $25,000.00 to all enrolled organizations.

Kennie's Marketplace "is committed to improving the quality of life of our families and community. Kennie's continues to actively support many local services and organizations that provide a stable community for us to live." This is the 14th year of the Community Treasures program, but the first year that the library has participated. The Taneytown Branch Library is currently signing up customers to participate in the program for 2012.
