PRESS RELEASE

DATE: April 19, 2010

For Immediate Release

Meet Logan Ward, Author of See You in a Hundred Years

Eldersburg, MD—Meet Logan Ward author of Carroll County Public Library's On The Same Page: Carroll County Reads Together selection See You in a Hundred Years Thursday, April 29 at 7 pm at the Eldersburg Branch.

Learn about how Mr. Ward and his family moved from New York City to Swoope, Virginia, to recreate the life of 19th century subsistence farmers, the subject of the book. Copies of the book will be available for purchase and signing. This free event is open to all ages; children 3 and under must be accompanied by an adult caregiver.

Freelance writer Logan Ward has written travel stories for National Geographic Adventure, the New York Times, Men's Journal, Popular Science, House Beautiful and other publications. He also writes regularly about science and architecture and is a contributing editor for Popular Mechanics, Cottage Living, Coastal Living, New Old House and Southern Accent.

On The Same Page: Carroll County Reads Together encourages Carroll Countians to read the same book and then attend discussions and programs centering on the book's themes. On The Same Page is a wonderful way for Carroll County residents to come together and share the experience of reading. Carroll County Public Library's On The Same Page program is sponsored by McDaniel College.

The Eldersburg Branch Library is located at 6400 West Hemlock Drive, Eldersburg. For more information contact Lisa Back at 410.386.4500, x3196 or lback@carr.org.
